2003

After completing her studies in business administration, she started working as a personnel consultant for recruiting in the area of office management at one of the largest personnel service providers in the world.

2007

She went to the Bertrandt Group as a team leader with her own P&L responsibility, with a focus on „personnel placement“.

2011

Desire for a specialization that consistently paved the way for an international personnel consultancy, with the task of building up the topic of executive search for the automotive industry..

2012

Followed the partnership on this personnel consultancy and in 2013 the title „Head of Automotive“.

2018

Finally, Plocher Executive Find was founded with a selected team as a holistic partner and has since continued the successful path of working with customers and candidates in the Skyloop office complex at Stuttgart Airport.

PLOCHER EXECUTIVE FIND

At PLOCHER EXECUTIVE FIND, we see ourselves as a reliable and sustainable partner who is clearly positioned in the market and offers an extremely extensive service through a highly professional and discreet way of working.

The satisfaction of our clients and candidates is our top priority. We are always authentic, reliable and as flexible as possible.

Almost 100% occupation rate. Efficiency has been our goal since day one and has been part of the Plocher Executive Find brand.

It is probably due to our proverbial fighting spirit and the extraordinary motivation of the entire PLOCHER EXECUTIVE FIND team.
